The Littlest Lives Rescue

My Bunny's Care Plan

Rabbit's name:

Date of birth:

Caregiver name:

Primary vet practice:

Out-of-hours practice:

Current health summary

Diagnoses/Chronic conditions

Normal behaviours (appetite, mobility, toileting, social interactions)

Recent test results

Goals of care

Your main focus (tick all that apply)

1. Comfort first, non-invasive
2. Maintain good quality of life as long as possible
3. Treat reversible issues only
4. Avoid hospitalisation or repeated anaesthetics
5. Other: _____

Acceptable interventions

Tick all that apply

- Blood tests
- Imaging (CT, X-ray, ultrasound)
- Anaesthetic
- IV fluids
- Other: _____

Grooming & Hygiene

Detail areas requiring support (bottom cleaning, de-matting, eye care) & frequency

Top tip! Use the free Dignipet app to log your bunny's quality of life

The Littlest Lives Rescue

Daily care needs

Detail feeding, hydration & mobility support

Normal diet/hydration (bowl, wet greens etc)

Go-to foods to encourage appetite

Any other comfort needs (heat pads, vet bed etc)

Medication plan

List current medications and doses

Medication name	Purpose	Dose	Frequency

Daily checks

Appetite and hay intake
Poop size and consistency
Water intake
Mobility and pain markers
Grooming
Social behaviour

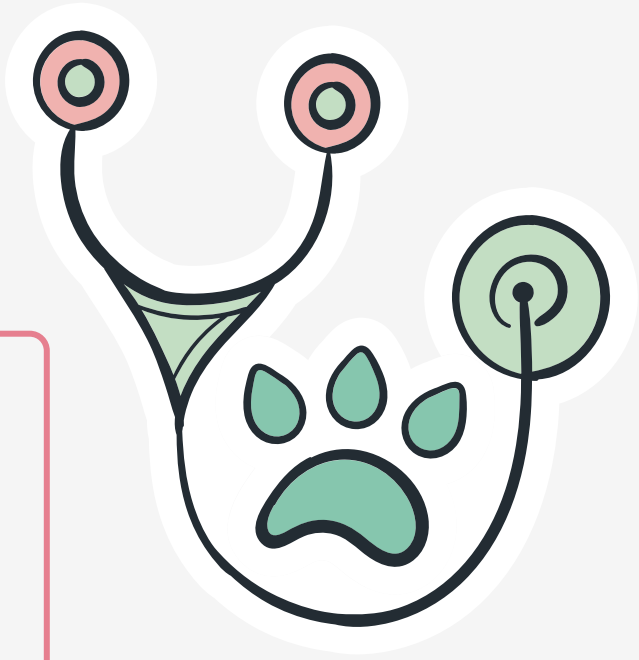

What does a “good day” look like?

Define early signs of decline

(to also be discussed with your vet)

The Littlest Lives Rescue

Emergency plan

What constitutes an emergency:

Not eating for >6 hours
No poop in litter tray for 8-12 hours
Obvious signs of pain
Collapse/severe weakness
Seizures/head tilt/unbalanced
Severe respiratory difficulty

Who to contact

Primary vet:

Out-of-hours vet:

End of life preferences

Tick those that apply

Preferred location
At home
Vet clinic

Bonded partner present during/after
Yes
No

Aftercare
Individual cremation
Communal cremation
Burial

Other wishes: _____

The Littlest Lives Rescue

Support for caregivers

Who to contact for support

The Blue Cross offer a helpline for those experiencing pet loss:
https://www.bluecross.org.uk/pet-loss-support

Practice self-care
Talk to other bunny people - they will get it!
Think about what helps on difficult days - whether it's crafting, spending time in nature, or chilling out watching your favourite film.

Space for notes and reflections